This feature is the right of the Policy holders made so by the law of the state of Massachusetts. Premiums a ready paid continue the Policy in force until they are earned by the cost of insurance. Fifteen policies in the New England Co. were paid under this law in 1871, amounting to $67,000.00 which would have been a total loss to the policy-holders, had they been insured in any company other than a Massachusetts company.

Tuesday afternoon Messrs. Isaac Chase and Charles W. Foster while at work on the store now building at Brighton, by the breaking of a beam, were precipitated about twelve feet in the midst of the falling timbers. They were considerable bruised and jarred, but are likely to recover soon.

The dead body of a man dressed in sailor's clothing, with a sheath knife in his belt, floated ashore near Fort Preble, Portland, Wednesday.

The Press says that the single scull race between Plaisted of Boston and Davis of Portland, which resulted in favor of the latter, caused great excitement at the "Hub," as it was not thought that a Portland amateur could beat a Boston Professional. Mr. Edward Mobhane and William Spellman of Portland, were judges for Davis. The race is considered the finest ever seen on the Charles river, and the time—22 minutes and 13 seconds, the fastest ever made there in single sculls.

A barn belonging to the estate of Dr. N P Monroe, on the Lincolnville road near the mark, took fire Wednesday evening last week, and was entirely consumed together with its contents, about twelve tons of hay. The adjoining house and L were badly scorched and were saved with great difficulty. The house was banged next day however, catching, probably, from the fire of the barn which had only been partially extinguished. No family lived in the house and there is but little doubt that the fire was set. The loss is estimated at $1,000 with no insurance.

A Hint to the Lean.

The cause of leanness, when there is no positive disease which produces it, is an imperfect assimilation of the food. The weight of the body undoubtedly bears a marked relation to, and increases proportionately to its height, when it is properly nourished with flesh-making blood. Hence, when we see a tall person with "slab" sides and hollow cheeks, we have a right to infer that his blood is thin and watery and his constitution delicate. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is peculiarly serviceable to thin, delicate people, since it strengthens the digestive and assimilative organs, and is consequently a powerful auxiliary in the blood manufacturing processes, which in a state of health ought to be, and are, thoroughly performed. An increase of muscle, as well as fat, is a result of using this sovereign anti-dyspeptic, appetizing and generally corrective cordial.

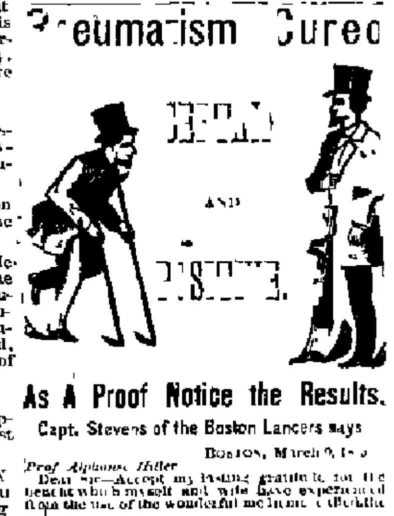
Rheumatism Cured



As A Proof Notice the Results.

Capt. Stevens of the Boston Lancers says

BOSTON, March 9, 1875.

Prof Alphonse Hiller

Dear Sir—Accept my lasting gratitude for the benefit which myself and wife have experienced from the use of the wonderful medicine called the

Diamond Rheumatic Cure

For several years past I have been subject to irregular attacks of Inflammatory Rheumatism, and each succeeding attack much more severe than its predecessor. The last visitation from this terrible scourge lasted three months. The best medical talent in Cambridge was called in, but no relief was experienced. I was so low on several occasions that my recovery was despaired of. When at last I rallied sufficient to discern what was transpiring about me, I learned that my wife was also afflicted with the same fearful disease. A friend, learning of our helpless condition, brought us six bottles of the DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE. By the taking of two doses of this invaluable remedy she was entirely relieved. I then commenced to take it, and rapidly improved until in about a week I was completely restored. Since then I have not had another attack, and one dose dispelled it. I no longer fear Rheumatism or its baneful effects. About two weeks since I recommended it to a friend who was likewise suffering, and the result was a certain cure by the use of one bottle. You can mention my name either publicly or privately in the interests of mankind. I am willing to be interviewed personally by any one desiring to know the above facts from me; and I feel fully convinced that the thousand who are to day suffering torments from the effects of Rheumatism and Gout, if they but knew how ready a relief and cure was at hand, would at once resort to this sure and simple remedy, and would bless with benedictions of praise the name of the physician who gave to suffering humanity this truly effective remedy, the DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE.

I remain, gratefully yours,

T. J. STEVENS,

20 Elm St., Cambridgeport, and 5 Cambridge St. Boston

The above testimony ought to convince the most skeptical Rheumatic that a SURE CURE has been discovered in the

Diamond Rheumatic Cure.

The proprietor of this medicine has visited the most of the hospitals of London and Paris for the last twenty years, making rheumatism a specialty, and the prescription from which this remedy is compounded is all he ever used in the treatment of this disease. In simple cases sometimes one or two doses suffice. In the most chronic case it is sure to give way by the use of four or five bottles. By this efficient and simple remedy hundreds of dollars are saved to those who can least afford to throw it away, as surely it is by the purchase of useless prescriptions.

Let any sufferer who reads this purchase a small bottle and take it according to the instructions around the package, and it will not take long to convince him that paying doctors' fees is money thrown away—Liniments of all kinds are useless.

This medicine is for sale at all Druggists throughout the United States and Canada. If it happens that your Druggist has not got it in stock, ask him to send for it to the wholesale agents,

HOW GENERAL ROBERTS' ORGAN MEETS AN ARGUMENT.

"A Republican mass meeting was held at Norombega Hall last evening. Edward B. Nealley presided. Gen. Connor made a short speech, following which O. P. Morton shook the bloody shirt for about an hour. He was unable to hold his audience, large numbers going out of the hall before he finished."—Commercial.

The above is the entire report of one of the largest and most earnest assemblages of the best people of Bangor ever witnessed in this city, as given by a paper which boasts of the number of its Republican patrons. On that report without giving its readers a word that was uttered by either of the speakers, Mr. Marcellus Emery, the conductor of General Roberts' home organ and his associate on the Democratic State Executive Committee, devotes fully two columns of editorial space to the grossest misrepresentations and even indecent abuse of the two gentlemen whose dignified discussion of great political issues was so warmly applauded by the intelligence and worth of Bangor. We wish that every Republican and every respectable person in our city could read the scandalous outpouring of Marcellus Emery's venom upon a gallant soldier and patriot statesman, whose words he is too cowardly to quote, and we hope the Republican campaign committee will give it the widest circulation. Nothing could more plainly show the character of the man who would be a leading spirit in the administration of the state in the event of that "change" which he so clamorously advocates.

The very abusiveness of that paper is the best evidence of the grand success of the popular demonstration at Norombega. When the Bourbons are hard hit they are always abusive, and the ferocity of their invective furnishes the measure of their defeat. This demagogue who aspires to be a political leader and to indulge in aspersions of such men as SELDEN CONNOR and OLIVER P. MORTON, bends his intellect to the task of deforming a little rent in the bunting of a campaign banner, over which he clamors with all the zest of a street gamin. But is it not enough for him that his … [illegible] … people of other times when Marcellus Emery exulted over the rents made by rebel volleys in the National Flag?

Such a remark suggests that the same … of the Stars and Stripes which found its poor expression in the Bangor Commercial inspires the abuse of a soldier who was well-nigh mortally wounded in its defence and a loyal statesman who was a very tower of strength to the Union cause. It is the physical infirmity of OLIVER P. MORTON, the man who with John A. Andrew stood famous among that glorious group of loyal Governors who upheld the hands of Abraham Lincoln when treason sprang to arms and assailed the life of the Nation, the man who defied a Democratic Legislature which refused supplies for the loyal troops, and who on his own responsibility raised funds to save the honor of his State and send forward the reinforcements so vital to the National cause—it is the physical misfortune of such a patriot that Marcellus Emery ridicules with an indecency which could only emanate from a bestial imagination. We tell the reckless lampooner that the paralytic stroke which transformed a man of magnificent physique into a cripple for life, was as much an injury received in the service of his country as if he had been shot down on the field of battle. Of the heroic souls who bore the brunt of the struggle with Copperheadism at home, and the burden of care and anxiety, not a few have already dropped exhausted into untimely graves, and only an adamantine constitution could have sustained the indefatigable Governor of Indiana through the herculean labors which he performed with hardly cessation or rest by night or day throughout the years which so literally tried men's souls. That he survived the shock which followed such tremendous overtaxing of his energies is a matter for surprise as it is a matter for congratulation that he is still intellectually and physically a giant compared with his pigmy traducer.

Of the treatment accorded by the organ of Gen. Roberts to Gen. Selden Connor on the occasion of his courteous and gentlemanly appearance before a Bangor audience, we have little patience to speak. The people of Bangor saw him, heard him and greeted him with a welcome as worthy of themselves as of him; and they recognized in his dignified, thoughtful and appropriate remarks, the culture, refinement and unmistakable ability of the man. We wish those who listened to the calm and thoughtful words with which General Connor evinced his grasp of the great issues before the country, to know that Marcellus Emery, without quoting a word of his remarks, declares that "he recited his lesson after the manner of a school-boy, repeating his declamation for a second time," comparing him to "hand organ," to which "Blaine would permit no change of course without his sanction." The Democratic candidate for Governor thus permits his leading champion to insult General Connor on his first appearance in this city by insinuating against the originality of his remarks, and representing him as a political automaton. General Connor, his audience of Thursday evening, and the friends who know his qualities, can afford to laugh at this petty exhibition of malice and jealousy combined; but the provocation has been so often repeated that we find forbearance wasted, and propose henceforth to squarely meet this challenge to a comparison of the personal qualifications and merits of the candidates.

At this time, in answer to the insults of General Roberts' organ, we simply declare that nowhere is it better known than in Bangor that the Democratic candidate for Governor could not for his life go upon the platform of Norombega and discuss public questions upon the broad plane occupied by Gen. Connor in his remarks. It is almost insufferable that a man put forward as a candidate for the most important office in the State, should have had his abilities so grossly exaggerated in all his party papers, while his opponents are expected to maintain considerate silence as to his deficiencies, even when his advocates are aspersing the demonstrated and conceded abilities of others. We deem it perfectly safe to say that not one member of the delegation from this city which nominated him regarded Gen. Roberts as properly qualified for the discharge of the duties of Governor of this State; and we know that there is not a business man of this city who had not smiled at the newspaper reference to "the great experience and business capacity" with which we are told that Gen. Roberts would "stamp his influence upon the policy of the State."

It is lamentable that such insincere claims should be put forward, and that any man should be placed in so false a position. The merits of good-fellowship become swallowed up in a laudation which effectually disguises its object, and there is neither sense nor reason in making a pantomime of an important State canvass. Let Gen. Roberts go before the people of Maine as Selden Connor is doing in answer to their summons, and if he can convince them that he is the abler, safer and better man, we will gracefully submit to what we should fail to understand.

The cheapest device ever resorted to in politics, but a favorite one with Democratic journals, is the publication of anonymous letters purporting to emanate from Republicans, but written for the benefit of the Democracy. The Commercial did a large but not very profitable business in that line in the campaign of 1872, and is trying the thing again. A recent effusion is vouched for as that of "one of the most active and influential young Republicans of Bangor" who is going to vote for Madigan. Now, if the writer is an "influential young Republican" who has joined the ranks of Pillsbury and Emery, he should give his new allies the "influence" of his name. Again, we don't believe he is a Republican, or that he is especially influential, although he permits himself to be thus accredited in print. We call upon the writer to come out manfully over his own name if he would use his "influence," and let us see what kind of a "Republican" he is. You should sail under honest colors, young man.

The young man who sends despatches from this city to the Boston Herald has evidently enlisted again for the campaign. In his report of the Norombega meeting he says that Gen. Connor's "remarks were confined chiefly to the prohibitory law," when all who were present know that his reference to that subject was as brief as it was frank and explicit. Then turning to Senator Morton, the veracious special says he "rapidly passed to the 'bloody shirt.' About half of the hour occupied by him was employed in floating on high this metaphorical garment." If Mr. Emery wrote that for his subordinate he knew when writing it that Senator Morton barely alluded to the subject of the Southern outrages, and that his reference thereto would not fill ten lines of space in print. But falsification is easier for some people than answering argument. In Portland, Senator Morton made much more extended reference to the fiendish massacres at the South which have become infamously historical, but the reporter in that city for the same Boston Herald characterized the address in his despatch as "a speech more adapted to an intellectual and cultivated audience than a mass-meeting." But the Portland correspondent is not connected with Mr. Emery's paper.

YORK COUNTY TO THE FRONT. The Republicans of Old York are wide awake and working with a will. There will be a grand Republican free clam bake and rally at Old Orchard Beach next Thursday, September 2, and among the speakers will be Senator Morton of Indiana, Hon. E. Rockwood Hoar and Gen. John L. Swift of Massachusetts and Frederick Douglass. Among others expected to be present are Hon. J. A. J. Creswell of Maryland, Hon. James G. Blaine, Hon. Eugene Hale and Hon. Wm. P. Frye. Chandler's Band of Portland, the Saco Band and the Gray Band are engaged to furnish the Music. The fares on the Boston and Maine, the Maine Central, the Grand Trunk, the P. S. & P., and Portland and Ogdensburg are to be reduced. All the refreshments are to be free. Ladies are to be invited. Public meetings will be held in the evening at Saco and Biddeford.

The opposition are badly demoralized. The Maine Democrat predicts a failure of its ticket in the county, and says that the managers' way of conducting the campaign is looked upon as "mean and cowardly, indicating that you distrust your own cause, and fear to meet the enemy in the open field. They [the Democratic party] look upon the leaders with contempt, as more interested in themselves than the public. The confidence of the people cannot be retained nor their enthusiasm aroused by such means."

It is not so extraordinary that Nebuchadnezzar lived on grass. We know of hundreds upon hundreds who live on the turf.

ROMAN CATHOLIC ASSUMPTIONS.
[From the Boston Advertiser.]

The discussion in the Catholic World recently on the subject of education present the claim of the Catholic church with such ability and candor as strongly to commend them to public attention. The last one is, we infer, a translation from the French: but it is presented to American readers as the judgment of intelligent American Catholics of what are the rights of the church over the education of American children. In Catholic countries the rights claimed are sweeping and absolute. But in countries where there is no State religion, where the law recognizes no trammels upon conscience and worship, the pretension is more prudently asserted, but it is asserted none the less.

Thus we are told that the Catholic church demands, among other things, "that at least the primary public schools shall remain denominational:" that is, there shall be separate schools for Catholic children to be under Catholic supervision and control, though supported by the government as they are now. This right of control includes the right of Catholic families "to choose masters whom they can trust to educate their children in the principles of the Catholic religion." From the same motives, "the church rejects the system of 'non-denominational schools,'" that is, our system of free schools, as presenting "a jumble of religions fatal to the faith and piety of children," and handing over Catholic children "to a manifest danger of religious perversion and moral ruin."

This claim of the Catholic church is defended by reasoning plausible, earnest, and convincing to those who believe that the Catholic church stands for infallible truth and that all outside of it is anti-Christ. This assumption we have not yet become entirely accustomed to on this side of the Atlantic, though it is asserted in high places with increased confidence year by year. It is not put in the daring and naked form in which it comes from Rome, but the meaning is not obscure. The Pope writing recently to M. Dupanloup, bishop of Paris, complimenting him on the passage of the university bill, put the assumption in this form:—

"Though it is contrary to the eternal laws of justice and to sound reason to place the true and the false on the same level, to allow to both the same rights,—nevertheless, as the iniquity of the times has made right, which by its nature belongs only to truth, attributed to error, so that the latter is allowed the power, wrongly labelled with the name of liberty, to creep in and spread at its will its lying theories of education, we acknowledge that your conduct has been equally wise and opportune in seeking to extract the antidote from the poison which civil society has imbibed and bears in its bosom. If the laws allow the first comer to put forward the dreams of his distempered mind as dogmas of science, there is certainly no reason why truth should not be accorded the same liberty."

The feature of the university bill which called out this bitter declaration authorized the clergy in France to establish clerical schools and universities free from the supervision of the government, in which they are at liberty henceforward to teach what they please,—a privilege which they have not had before since the French revolution. Such an assumption as that above quoted from the head of a church which aims at universal dominion, in affairs temporal as well as spiritual, is a portentous one, and well deserves the serious attention which is being given to it in all civilized countries. It was this assumption which led Mr. Gladstone to launch his warning not against individual utterances of Pope and prelate here and there, but against the smooth and soft exterior of a system "which is dangerous to the foundation of civil order."

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

Parson Brownlow believes that the States rights issue—or, as he says, the "secession" issue—is still the platform of the Democratic party.

It is said that ex-Gov. Holden is the only man now in North Carolina debarred from voting or holding office, he having been impeached by the Legislature a few years ago.

The South Carolina State Government, with that very excellent carpet-bagger, Governor Chamberlain, at the head of it, is giving satisfaction to all parties. The Columbia Union-Herald makes the statement, and the Charleston News and Courier indorses it, and there is no difference of opinion among the people as to the Governor's policy, and if it is carried out consistently, there will be, it says, at the end of the present administration, no ground of difference or estrangement between the people out of which political capital can be made by the demagogues of either party.

The Cincinnati Commercial says that the Ohio Democrats are behind the Republicans in organizing throughout the State. It will take them at least a fortnight to reach the state of organization in which the Republicans are to-day, and, by that time the Republicans will have made advances.

They do say that Gov. Tilden is working against both Fernando Wood and Sunset Cox on the Speakership, because he wants to keep New York on a short allowance of honors till the Presidential nominations come on.

North Carolina had previous to the present a peculiar constitution. Under it the State Senate was chosen by freeholders owning fifty acres of land or more, and a State Senator must hold three hundred acres in fee. There was no township government such as is now general in the United States, and as obtains also at present in North Carolina.

While Judge Kelley is proclaiming at the West that the tramps now infesting the country are mostly honest men driven out of employment by the "money power," the farmers there are offering $2 a day for the labor of these same men. Put that and that together.

General W. F. Bartlett desires the Boston Advertiser to state that the use of his name in connection with the "new party" was without his knowledge or consent.

General Cary is saying on the stump in Ohio that if the public debt is not paid in paper the people "will throw it all off by open, square repudiation." Thus it is either dishonesty or wholesale villainy that these men are aiming at.

They have tried the "change" in Somerset county and know how it is. The Reporter, which has recently been showing up the achievements of the Democratic county officials, prints a lame letter from one of them with this comment:

Yes, we want reform, but until the Democratic party can show us some brighter example of that virtue which strives to sustain a professed principle, than they have in this county for the past three years, let them not cherish a hope that public trusts will again be confided to them.

Read Mr. Chessman's letter. It is another case where the evidence of the defendant establishes the case for the prosecution.

A Portland special to the Boston Herald, reporting the City Hall mass-meeting, says there was a "storm of applause" when Senator Morton, in referring to Gen. Connor as a soldier, said: "He bears evidence in his own person that he did not resign his commission in the face of the enemy."

THE PORTLAND RALLY. The Press says that the mass-meeting on Wednesday evening "was a much greater success than even the most sanguine dared to expect. City Hall was filled with one of the best audiences we have ever seen at a political meeting in this city, and gave an attention to the speakers that we have seldom observed, indicating that thinking people have not ceased to take a deep interest in political questions."

The Advertiser says: "One of the best audiences ever seen at a political meeting filled City Hall last evening. Not less than three thousand people occupied the floor and galleries, until about 10 o'clock, when Senator Morton concluded his remarks."

The Union League Preparing for Vigorous Campaign Work.

NEW YORK, Aug 27. A Philadelphia special says that at a secret meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Union league yesterday, Ex-Governor Newell of New Jersey, presided, and measures were discussed looking to the organization of a league in the South and a vigorous prosecution of the work against the Democracy in that section. The aid of all loyal whites who will agree to work with the colored Republicans will be invoked to unite with the colored voters in that section of the country, and keep them as far as possible from the contaminating influence of the Democrats. This meeting is preliminary to a large one to be held next month at which Representatives from every State in the Union will be present. Several important measures for a large meeting were brought forward and a partial programme of business mapped out.

THE SAN FRANCISCO PANIC.

The Affairs of the Suspended Bank

RALSTON COMMITS SUICIDE.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN THE CITY

Suspension of the National Gold Bank of San Francisco—Statement of President Davis.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26—Midnight. The National Gold Bank and Trust Company make the following announcement:

"In consequence of the panic and the impossibility of obtaining coin the National Gold Bank and Trust Company will close until further notice. The bank has $1,300,000 over and above their liabilities. As soon as coin can be obtained it will resume business as usual. In the meantime any creditor so desiring can have good assets of the bank to the amount of his claim."

(Signed) HENRY L. DAVIS, President

A Run on Other Banks Expected

A run is expected on the San Francisco and Merchants Exchange bank to-morrow. A meeting of bank presidents is called to concert measures for relief. The Board of Brokers all called the meeting.

The Deposits of the Bank

NEW YORK, Aug 27. A prominent banker says the deposits of the Bank of California probably amount to between $8 000 000 and $10 000 000. They usually hold $200 000 in coin. It is believed the amount of bills of exchange out in the name of the bank is £150 000 or £200 000. Fisk & Hatch say the bank had no interest as investors in the Central Pacific Railroad. The secretary of the company in this city confirms this statement but says the railroad had an account with the bank and had made loans from it.

Intense Excitement

A special from San Francisco says the exchanges are all closed and business in a state of suspension, intense excitement prevailing.

The Exchange Bank Doors Closed

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27. The Merchants Exchange Bank closed its doors this morning. The directors have prepared the following notice for the papers:

In consequence of the excitement and disappointment of getting coin, the directors deem it for the best interests of all concerned not to open our doors for the present.

The secretary states that the bank has $100 000 in coin on hand. The amount liable on deposits is $800 000, but against that there may be over $400 000 in notes. The bank is perfectly solvent. The only trouble is the lack of coin.

Condition of Other Banks

The First National Gold Bank reports everything secure, and the same may be said of the Bank of British Columbia and the Pacific and Commercial Banks. Private banks report no excitement and everything going on as usual. Generally speaking all of the city banks are considered sound except the Bank of California. President of Ralston this morning said that there was nothing in addition to his statement of yesterday. Many are current regarding the condition of the Bank of California. One statement, apparently from good authority, is that the bank will pay depositors in full, and stockholders 50 cents on the dollar. On the other hand a prominent stockholder states that the most the bank can do will be to satisfy the demands of depositors and it will scarcely be able to do that. There has been a slight rush at the Hibernian Savings Bank but it was promptly met with the rules as expressed in the by-laws of that institution. On the whole confidence seems to be returning and it is believed that the worst is over. But little uneasiness is felt as to the affairs of either the National Gold Bank and Trust Company or the Merchants Exchange Bank. The former reports a probability of soon resuming although it is unable to fix the [illegible]

Rumors

Ralston's Speculation Losses

NEW YORK, Aug 27. A report is current that the losses of Ralston and his liquor in California on mining stocks and other adventures will reach $6 000 000.

Ralston Commits Suicide

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug 27. About ten minutes past 5 o'clock a close carriage drove rapidly to the side of the Bank of California, and a gentleman jumped out in a state of excitement and ran into the bank. In response to inquiries the hackman said he had just left the body of Ralston in charge of an officer on the beach, near the smelting works in the northern part of the city drowned. It is supposed he committed suicide.

Later—Deliberate Suicide

Ralston rode to Selby's smelting wharf and jumped off the dock.

Matters Looking Better

NEW YORK, Aug 27. Private dispatches from prominent gentlemen in San Francisco say that matters look better so far as the best interests of the city and state are concerned. The financial panic is fearful. The losses by the failure of the Bank of California will be heavy.

Further Particulars of Ralston's Death—Great Excitement

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug 27. The great excitement in this city over the death of Ralston, President of the Bank of California, overshadows every other topic. It appears he went to a sea bathing establishment at North Beach at 3 25 P M, undressed, went into the water and swam about twenty yards and disappeared behind a vessel. Soon after his body was discovered floating by the Selby lead works and was brought ashore still alive. A physician was summoned, but all efforts to resuscitate him failed and he died at 4.30. Various rumors as to Ralston are afloat, among others that he drank the contents of a vial before going into the water and the general impression is that he took poison.

A Better Feeling as to the Banks

It is believed that all the banks will go on without further trouble and that the National Gold Bank will resume on Monday.

THE EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE.

The Discussion on Romanism.

STRONG RESOLUTIONS PASSED.

Resolutions Passed against Sectarian Schools and the Division of School Money

CAPE MAY, May 27. At the Evangelical Convention, yesterday, the subject of Romanism was taken up, and there was much debate, resulting finally in the adoption of the following resolutions:

Whereas, The Government of the United States is founded on the separation of church and state, and their disjoint existence and separation within their distinct spheres; and whereas, the Romanist Church is now forming State, National and political organizations in this country, under the name of Catholic Unions, for the avowed purpose of securing by means of the ballot legislation favorable to its interests and subversive of the fundamental principles of republican government; and, whereas, the Papal Church, apparently with the purpose of overturning the free institutions of a country which has welcomed its adherents to a full participation in its privileges is employing sophistry and intrigue to induce our people and our politicians to favor their unjust institutional and purely denominational claims, and whereas, the Church of Rome is demanding the distribution of the public school funds among religious sects or the subversion of our admirable and time-honored system of public instruction, and is employing agencies in some instances purely political to secure legislation and municipal appropriations to their asylums, churches and parochial schools, thereby subverting the fundamental conception of the relations of the church and state as established by our fathers in the institutions of this new world, therefore,

Resolved, That we do cordially approve and will earnestly maintain as citizens of these United States the principles which separate the state from the church.

Resolved, That it is with profound regret that we have learned of politico-ecclesiastical organizations established in New Jersey and other States under the inspiration and blessing of the Pope, the members of which amongst are bound to render unreserved obedience to ecclesiastically made officers in these organizations.

Resolved, That this convention earnestly calls upon all friends of American institutions to exert all their energy and influence in every legitimate way to resist these aggressions and maintain our free institutions intact.

Resolved, That, believing in the freedom of conscience and the right of self government we call upon all patriots in the country to resist by all lawful methods all efforts to change the present system of public school education.

Resolved, That we earnestly solicit every true friend of our country to use his influence in every proper way to prevent State and municipal appropriations for sectarian purposes.

The Bangor Post Office.

THE LOCATIONS IT HAS OCCUPIED—LIST OF POSTMASTERS, ETC

There are many who enter our well arranged and efficiently conducted post-office who are unaware of the numerous and very important changes in its location which have been made since 1801, though they may not be of some of the very great improvements as to the handling and care of the large amounts of mail matter which daily pass through it and on to the proper destination. The present location is far more convenient than it was in 1801, when those who received mail matter were obliged to go to a house on Front street, in the vicinity of the Maine Central depot. The location was then called "Joppa," and for three years the Bangoreans had to go to "Joppa" for his mail. In 1804 the post-office took quite an extensive journey and occupied a place in the vicinity of the "Red Bridge," which in these days would be quite a walk for our business men, especially if they were in a hurry to get their letters. But it did not rest here long, for in 1805 it was located in John Harlow's house then standing on or near the present site of the steamers' house on Harlow street. In five years more, or in 1810 it was in William D Williamson's house on Main street and again in 1821 it was moved to the corner of Main street and West Market Square. Here it remained until 1829, when it was again moved and occupied a place in the store now occupied by the Messrs. Osgood & Lyford, on Kenduskeag bridge, where it remained until after the great freshet of March 29, 1846, when it was transferred to the store now occupied by Edmunds & Wiggin Elm block, Hammond street, where it remained until 1857, when it was moved into the place it now occupies, which is at the present time most convenient to all who receive or send mail matter, and taken in connection with branch mailing offices now attached to the lamp posts and the efficient carrier service is good enough.

During these years of change the office has been under the charge of the following Postmasters, who were commissioned at the date following each name:

Bulkley Emerson, January 1 1801, William Forbes, April 1, 1804. Bulkley Emerson, October 1, 1804; Horatio G. Balch January 1, 1806, William D. Williamson, April 1, 1810; Royal Clark, July 2, 1821; Mark Trafton May 1, 1829; Charles K Miller, May 21, 1839; Isaac C Haynes March 8, 1848, Joshua W. Carr, June 7 1849, Isaac C Haynes, April 5, 1853. Leonard Jones, April 1, 1857; Jason Weeks, April 4, 1861; Charles K. Miller Aug 24, 1866 George Fuller, April 24 1867, and Augustus B Farnham, who entered upon his duties April 1 1871.

Between 1829 and 1836 the appointment of Postmasters became Presidential, and July 9th of the latter year Mark Trafton was reappointed. The other reappointments have been Mr. Miller, March 8, 1844 and Mr Weeks July 7, 1865. The carrier system introduced under the management of Col Farnham, is one of the many very important conveniences which have been added within the last decade and none of them are better appreciated by the people. All things considered, Bangoreans may well be proud of the postal conveniences of the city, and the care which the large quantities of mail matter received at the hands of the officials who manage the office so satisfactorily to all.

A Fine Day—The Services Friday—Close of the Meetings—Wedding on the Grounds Etc., Etc.

NORTHPORT, Aug 27.

The weather to-day has been superb, and the attendance large, though not so much so as yesterday. An excursion train from Augusta brought four cars loaded with people to Belfast, who took the steamer there for the camp-ground.

At 10 o'clock a good audience gathered and was addressed by Rev M D Mathews, of Upper Stillwater, from Tim 1, 4-8, after which an interesting public prayer-meeting was held. The children's meeting at 1 o'clock was conducted by Mrs. Clark and proved most interesting and instructive.

At 2 o'clock Rev W W Marsh, of Bucksport, preached a thrilling sermon from Acts iv, ..2. This was a most fitting discourse with which to close the preaching services, and the able effort of the speaker was worthy the time, the place and the message.

At 7 o'clock Rev L. D. Wardwell, of Rockland, had charge of the meeting, and addresses were made by Revs M. G Prescott, George Pratt and Albert Church. This was the last public service, and was followed by social meetings in the several tents.

The meeting throughout has been entirely successful as regards attendance and attention, and it is hoped the results will be no less wide-spread than the territory from which so large numbers of people have come.

Just before the morning sermon Mr. Austin J Hardy and Minnie W. Dawes, both of Carmel, were joined in marriage by Rev Theodore Gerrish. D. H. S.

PISCATAQUIS COUNTY

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION AT DOVER—A GRAND MASS-MEETING IN THE SQUARE—STIRRING ADDRESS BY HON. J G BLAINE—THE "WATCH-FIRES" LIGHTED IN PISCATAQUIS.

DOVER, Aug 27, 1875

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier

The Republicans of Piscataquis held their County Convention yesterday afternoon at the Court House in Dover. Hon Cyrus A Packard, of Blanchard was chosen President and S. O Dinsmore and T P Elliott, Secretaries. After duly organizing the following candidates were nominated:

For Senator S O Brown, Esq, of Dover, County Commissioner, Leonard Hilton, of Kingsbury; Treasurer, Calvin B Kittredge, of Dover.

The County Committee for the ensuing year were appointed as follows:

E J. Hale, Foxcroft,
A W. Chapman, Monson,
J. F. Sprague, Abbott,
Jason Hassell, Sebec,
C H B Woodbury, Dover.

The ticket nominated is a strong one and will carry a heavy vote. Mr Brown, the candidate for Senator is one of our most capable and enterprising young men, being the proprietor and manager of the extensive woollen mills at this place, and a gentleman of superior attainments and great business capacity. The following resolutions were adopted by the Convention:

Resolved, That our faith in Republican principles is undiminished, and that the highest interest of the Nation demands its continuance in power until the results of the war shall be cheerfully acquiesced in by the whole country.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the platform adopted by our State Convention and pledge ourselves to use all honorable efforts to secure the election of Gen. Selden Connor by an increased majority.

Resolved, That we believe in the ability, integrity and patriotism of Gen. H. M Plaisted, our candidate for Representative to Congress, and that he merits and shall receive our cordial support.

Resolved, That we have the fullest confidence in the nominees of this Convention—that we will work and vote for their triumphant election.

ADDRESS BY EX-SPEAKER BLAINE

After the Convention a mass meeting assembled in Merrick Square to listen to an address by Hon. James G Blaine, the distinguished ex Speaker of the National House. The attendance was large and the manifestations of approval of Mr Blaine's stirring remarks showed that the people are fully alive to the issues before them. In opening Mr. Blaine eloquently alluded to the fact that this was his first public appearance in Dover since fifteen years ago when from the same stand a mass-meeting was addressed by himself and the lamented Anson P. Burlingame in the great Lincoln campaign.

Mr. Blaine spoke with his accustomed force and ability of the issues now confronting the people of Maine, and especially those of the Fourth District and the enthusiasm which prevailed gave evidence of the heartiness with which the Republicans of Piscataquis are enlisted in the good cause. The people of this county know something of the kind of Democracy which follows the lead of Marcellus Emery and they intend to give it such a defeat in September as Grant gave Emery's rebel allies at Appomattox. The Bourbons are actively burrowing in secret, but the people are aroused and will smoke them out effectually on election day.

The address of Mr. Blaine was most heartily received and will have an excellent effect in stimulating the activity of our friends in this section. After the meeting he rode over to Newport to take Friday's train for Augusta.

Piscataquis is sound to the core and in proportion to size will give Penobscot a sharp race for the Republican banner.

CONSUMPTION
MANSION HOUSE HOTEL,
BALTIMORE, Md, October 20, 1871.

MR. JAMES I FELLOWS.

Dear Sir: I have just finished the tenth and last bottle of your estimable Syrup of the Hypophosphites. To its use I ascribe cessation of cough, sharp pains in my back and chest, and of copious expectoration, also, return of appetite, buoyancy of spirits, increase of flesh and strength to perform my daily duties with a degree of pleasure unknown to me for a long time. The good I have experienced from it is beyond description, and I advise all persons afflicted with consumption not to delay a day in taking it. Feeling sure that were it not for your Hypophosphites, I would now be in my grave. Yours truly,

Exhaustion

Exhaustion and degeneration follow the excessive use of the senses, without due intervals of rest for repair. In order to maintain the wonted energy, the force expended, whether of body or mind, must be restored. When the expenditure of brain matter and other nervous elements is continued by over-work, the early extinction of life itself may be looked for as the result of such degeneration. The ingredients composing Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites are such as constitute healthy blood, re-establish sound nerves and senses, and will, consequently, not only prevent this exhaustion but in most cases restore such as is lost.

Its Medical Properties are

ALTERATIVE, TONIC, SOLVENT AND DIURETIC.

VEGETINE is made exclusively from the juices of carefully selected barks roots and herbs and so strongly concentrated, that it will effectually eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula, Scrofulous Humor, Tumors, Cancer, Cancerous Humor, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Syphilitic Diseases, Canker, Faintness at the Stomach and all diseases that arise from impure blood. Sciatica, Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout and Spinal Complaints, can only be effectually cured through the blood.

For Ulcers and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, Pustules, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, Tetter, Scaldhead and Ringworm, VEGETINE has never failed to effect a permanent cure.

For pains in the Back, Kidney Complaints, Dropsy, Female Weakness, Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine diseases and General Debility, Vegetine acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cures ulceration and regulates the bowels.

For Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Headache, Piles, Nervousness and General Prostration of the Nervous System, no medicine has ever given such perfect satisfaction as the Vegetine. It purifies the blood, cleanses all of the organs and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system.

The remarkable cures effected by Vegetine have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and use it in their own families.

In fact, Vegetine is the best remedy yet discovered for the above diseases, and is the only reliable BLOOD PURIFIER yet placed before the public.

PREPARED BY

H. R. STEVENS, Boston, Mass.

What is Vegetine? It is a compound extracted from barks, roots and herbs. It is Nature's Remedy. It is perfectly harmless from any bad effect upon the system. It is nourishing and strengthening. It acts directly upon the blood. It quiets the nervous system. It gives you good, sweet sleep at night. It is a great panacea for our aged fathers and mothers, for it gives them strength, quiets their nerves, and gives them Nature's sweet sleep—as has been proved by many an aged person. It is the great Blood Purifier. It is a soothing remedy for our children. It has relieved and cured thousands. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it. It relieves and cures all diseases originating from impure blood. Try the Vegetine. Give it fair trial for your complaints, then you will say to your friend, neighbor and acquaintance, "Try it, it has cured me."

VEGETINE for the complaints for which it is recommended is having a larger sale throughout the United States than any other one medicine. Why? Vegetine will cure these complaints.

THE SAME MARQUE.

BY MARY B. DODGE.

I chanced upon a brilliant scene,
And, musing, thus I said
All peoples on this single canvas,
The whole world here is spread.

"Here surely is the time and place
To solve a riddle old,
For whose talks with hidden face
The truth will thus unfold."

Just then came tripping lightly by,
Her step with youth elate,
A Gascon girl of sparkling eye
"Fair maid, I pray thee, wait,

"For I a riddle of the Sphinx
Would ask thee—What is Love?"
Tossing her head, the saucy minx
Said, "Look in yonder grove"

I thither glanced where she designed
In time to mark a kiss,
And thought without ado divined
Her answer told in this

Ah me ... sighed, the little knows
For Love lives not in kisses
And whose plan his faith to shows
The real often misses.

In purple robes and rarest lace
A Queen now stopped my way
"I thought I knew," she said with grace,
But that was yesterday'"

A ... brown I next espied,
And crossed her hand with gold
She whispered, "Love is slave to pride,
A thing that's bought and sold"

Later I met a light coquette,
She radiant as the noon
With mocking laugh said, "I forget,
Or else you come too soon

A friar in his serge of grey,
Thought love was fixed in heaven
And following him, a knight all gay
Cried, "Nay, 'tis earthly leaven

Still all on Cupid's errands seemed
To be supremely bent
The one the sweet illusion dreamed,
In wedding haste one went

The gipsy even though touched with spleen
I knew had her romance,
And held a sort of faith between
Mere gain and complaisance

But no solution could I get
My earnest quest to aid
Each seemed to speak the truth and yet
Love's secret to evade

At length upon a heavy sage
I happened, tired and faint
No masque, I thought, is here—his age
Is patient—all is quaint.

I will not mention Love to him
His circles have no heat
The fires if ever there are dim
We'll strengthen us with meat

At once I call for fruit and wine
He ... the grateful cup
And ... know ... quest of mine
I ... while we sup

Somewhere I note the seal of time
Upon his grizzled chin
The lip and cheek are both sublime
Of peachless dew within

Still his are showing round his eyes—
You ask me what is Love?
The power, he tenderly replies
That rules the courts above

"The strength that knows no limit here
Than how much less beyond!
Of that which makes two beings dear
To each and keeps them fond

The light of souls that claim their own,
Though silence bar the lips
... through ... they walk alone
Beneath the skies ...

The glow of lofty souls in flight
Through Time serenely borne
... pinions to flight
Where ... eternal morn

The flame of spirits ...
... but ...
... beneath the sun
... in death

This then is Love." The voice fell ...
I marked the masque withdraw,
And looked in vain of I ago to greet,
'Twas Cupid's self I saw

DESPERATE ENCOUNTER WITH A BURGLAR.

James H. Noe, for many years an extensive ... manufacturer at No. 275 Greenwich street, near Warren, New York City, was on Sunday attacked in his store by a burglar and received injuries which are ... to be fatal.

A new building is in course of construction next door to No. 275 Greenwich street, and as its walls have reached the level of the adjoining roof, Mr. Noe and his sons ... lately been apprehensive that a burglar might gain access through this to the store ... of their manufactory ... in their stock is a large quantity of feathers used in brush making which are valued at $10 per pound, and they knew that thousands of dollars worth could be easily removed.

For these reasons Mr. Noe, who is fifty ... years of age, left his house, No. 51 ... street, ... Sunday morning in order ... that all was secure at his place of business. He entered the manufactory a little before 8 o'clock and locked the door behind him. His attention was immediately ... to a peculiar noise overhead, and on mounting to the top floor he found ... forcing open the scuttle.

... the scuttle was opened Mr. Noe ... sprang up the steps to the ... and seized the burglar, whom ... down into the room. The robber ... by the suddenness of the ... he drew a jimmy from ... with which he struck Mr. Noe ... The latter then attempted to ... an iron instrument of ... pounds weight—which lay on a ... foot of the scuttle.

... however, and ... weapon with which he felled ... the floor ... him other ... blows as he dropped. He then ... hand and foot with a strong cord and attempted to gag him, but the gag ... Mr. Noe's mouth. The robber ... $25 in money ... gold watch and chain valued at ... $100.

Blood from Mr. Noe's head having stained the assailant's hands the latter washed ... a pail of water. Mr. Noe begged him for a drink of water, but the man said he could not stop, as it was twenty years ... The robber then left ... to return and kill Mr. Noe ...

The wounded man finally called for help, and was released by a woman, Mrs. ... who lived in the top story of a tenement house near by and made her way to him across the roofs. She assisted him down into the street, where a policeman took him in charge and conveyed him to ... Chambers street hospital.

It was found that Mr. Noe's skull was badly fractured and that his head bore ... cuts which penetrated the scalp. There is little or no hope of his recovery.

BOSTON'S EXPORT TRADE—The usual monthly returns of exports from Boston during July is a remarkable exhibit. In the first place the value was almost exactly double that in the corresponding month in 1874, and in the history of the port the amount, $4,463,145 has been exceeded but twice—in April and May 1874, and then but a very small sum. But the more important fact is the very large proportion which manufactured goods bear to the total. Let us notice a few of the leading items. Cotton piece goods $285,377, tanned leather and manufactures $306,708, iron, steel and manufactures of the same, $165,243, wood manufactures other than lumber and cooperage stock, $69,054, agricultural implements, $68,683, the aggregate value of brass, books, bricks, brooms, candles, carriages, clocks, cordage, copper, confectionery, earthenware, fancy goods, glass, India-rubber, ink, jewelry, lamps, matches, musical instruments, oil cloth, paints, paper, plated ware, pictures, sewing machines, soap, spirits, tin, trunks and woolen goods—$132,171; and here we have, without counting all the articles which in strictness come under the head of manufactures, $927,237, which is almost twenty-seven per cent of the total value. No other port in the country presents anything like such a proportion of manufactured goods, and if provisions, oils, wheat, flour and corn meal were to be added, the total would be carried up to $2,340,000, or two-thirds of the whole exportation. The growing extent of our trade with Canada, the West Indies, South America, Africa and Australia is also worthy of notice.—[Boston Advertiser

To the Honorable Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, holden at Bangor, within and for the County of Penobscot on the first Tuesday of April, 1875

The undersigned, a resident of Bangor, libels and informs this Honorable Court that she was married to Charles F. Bump, of said Bangor on the 20th day of January 1872, by a Justice of the Peace, and that ever since she has behaved herself as a faithful wife, but that said libelee, unmindful of his marital obligations has, since their marriage, contracted habits of intemperance and become a common drunkard, and for the last year has spent what he earned for liquor, compelling her to support herself. She further says that he has within the last year deserted her, going to parts unknown as she believes, without the State, and that she has made reasonable diligence to ascertain his residence but cannot. She therefore prays that the bonds of matrimony existing between them may be dissolved and a divorce decreed. Dated this 14th day of June, 1875. GEORGIANNA BUMP

Penobscot, ss. June 14, 1875. Before me came the above signed Georgianna Bump and made oath to the allegation above, that she has made reasonable diligence to ascertain the libelee's residence, but could not.

News of This Section and the State.

In politics the paper will continue to advocate and uphold the principles of the Republican party, while claiming to be independent, in the highest and best sense of the word. While fearless and outspoken in its treatment of all public questions and firmly maintaining what it believes to be right, it will avoid intolerance and make its appeals to the understanding rather than to prejudice. The year about to open will be fruitful of political events of important bearing upon the future of the country, and it will be our aim to keep our readers thoroughly informed, and to favor such measures and policy as will best promote the welfare of all the people. The great interests of of Maine will receive special attention and all the influence of the paper will be exerted in stimulating the growth and prosperity of our beloved State. We rigidly exclude from our columns everything of an immoral tendency, avoid sensational matter and seek to make a thoroughly reliable paper which will find this paper affords the principal medium of communication with a large and constantly increasing number of readers throughout Central and Eastern Maine. On the first of January the paper will appear in

LETTER CARRIERS

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on, and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails—the down town boxes fifteen and the up town boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at the office.

Holidays and Sundays the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M. Also open evenings from 7½ to 8½ P. M.

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left hand upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department, (samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window) when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with.

The public are earnestly recommended to procure Stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

First class envelopes of above furnished at $37.80 per thousand.

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such Stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars.

Stamped Envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at this office.

DOMESTIC POSTAGE.

All Letters Must be Prepaid—Letters for the Mails in the United States, three cents the half ounce or single rate. City letters, two cents half ounce or single rate.

NEWSPAPERS.

After January 1st, 1875, all regular newspapers must be prepaid at the office of publication, at the rate of two cents per pound for each issue on weekly papers or those published oftener than once a week, less frequently than once a week three cents. The same law applies to dealers.

County papers free, except to letter carrier offices, i.e. papers coming to this office, if published in County, are subject to postage. Daily papers published in County, if delivered by carrier, one cent each, to be prepaid by stamps.

Postage to Canada.—Same as in the States on letters and papers, pre-payment compulsory, merchandise limited to 8 oz., postage 10 cents.

TRANSIENT PRINTED MATTER AND BOOKS AND MERCHANDISE.

One cent an ounce, or fraction, weight limited to four pounds. Liquids, and anything that will injure mail excluded. All matter of this class must be wrapped, so as to be examined without destroying wrappers.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

All letters remaining in the office are advertised on Monday of each week. If not claimed in one month thereafter, they are then forwarded to Washington

MONEY ORDERS.

Especial attention is called to the Money Order system, as a safe and cheap method of transmitting small sums through the mails. Orders are issued in sums of not more than fifty dollars. Larger amounts can be transmitted to the same person, at the same time, by additional orders.

On orders not exceeding $15, 10 cents
" over $15 and not exceeding $30, 15 cents
" over $30 and not exceeding $40, 20 cents.

DERANGEMENT OF THE STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

The Stomach is the great centre which influences the health or disease of the system, abused by excess,

Indigestion,

Are the natural result. The Liver becomes affected, hence we have

The Bowels are deranged occasioning

Costiveness,
Diarrhœa,
Dysentery.

A necessity has long been felt by physicians and families for

A SAFE AND RELIABLE ANTI-BILIOUS PILL,

Something that should be safe to administer and could be relied on in all cases where a cathartic was required. To meet this demand,

PARSONS'

PURGATIVE PILLS

Were compounded, every property of which has been carefully tested by scientific investigation, and are believed to be the

SAFEST, SUREST & MOST RELIABLE FAMILY PILL IN THE WORLD.

PARSONS'

PURGATIVE PILLS

Are composed of cathartics used and approved by all medical practitioners. They do not require the patient to take from six to a dozen, as do most others, but one or two of Parsons' Pills, taken as directed, are sufficient except in extreme cases to cure

Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility,
Headache,
Oppression after Eating,
Piles, Heartburn,
Furred Tongue,
Distention of the Stomach
and Bowels,
Dizziness, Sick Headache,
Loss of Appetite,
Pain in the Back or Side,
Inflammation of the Kidneys,
&c., &c.

PARSONS'

PURGATIVE PILLS

Are a SAFE, WHOLESOME and NATURAL medicine, and may be relied upon as being the

BEST ANTI-BILIOUS MEDICINE

IN EXISTENCE.

The components of these pills, that are now astonishing everybody, by giving relief in hundreds of cases that have generally been supposed to be incurable have been used by one of our best physicians in his practice for the last fifty years, with marked success.

IN THE SPRING OF THE YEAR
